GLOBAL CONFERENCE

THE JOY OF WORKING:

Positive Approaches to Work, Career, & Life
JUNE 28-30, 2017

We invite you to attend the Happiest Career Development Conference on Earth – the National Career Development Association’s Global Career Development Conference!

You will be surrounded by more than a thousand career development professionals from around the United States and the world. When in Orlando, Florida you are surrounded by theme parks that delight millions of children and adults. You will, of course, enjoy these theme parks when you aren’t engaged in the stimulating workshops and discussions that will occur during the conference. The weather should be glorious while you are at the conference and the companionship of colleagues promises to bring you joy.

The Joy of Working—Positive Approaches to Work, Career, and Life is not only the theme of this year’s conference but is hopefully the theme of our practice. NCD A’s Global Conference is a time of year when we can learn new techniques, refine current practice, and recharge our professional batteries. As in the past, this year’s conference will be full of dynamic and diverse presentations and unique and invigorating keynotes.

We look forward to seeing you in Orlando, Florida!!

With Joy,
David Reile, PhD
NCD A President, 2016-2017

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

PANEL

Whistle While You Work

Wednesday, June 28, 2017

2:30 – 4:00 pm

We have benefitted from and used the outstanding work of Donald Super, John Holland, and other legends in the theory and practice of career development. But there are others who have added (and continue to add) to our lexicon and approaches to serving our students and clients. In this opening keynote, you will experience case presentations applying the ideas and techniques of Transition theory, Narrative and Constructivist approaches, and Integrative Life Planning. Our esteemed panelists will apply their skills by exploring the lives and careers of individuals who have touched the lives of people the world over.

ERNIE J. ZELINSKI

The Joy of NOT Working

Thursday, June 29, 2017

9:30 – 11:00 am

Ernie J. Zelinski is an international best-selling author, prosperity life coach, innovator, and unconventional career expert. He has helped hundreds of thousands of individuals from all walks of life in their major career transitions and retirement planning through his life changing books.

Ernie's fifteen creative works — published in twenty-two languages in twenty-nine countries — have sold over 950,000 copies worldwide. His retirement bestsellers The Joy of Not Working and How to Retire Happy, Wild, and Free together have sold over 600,000 copies and have been featured in major international media such as USA TODAY, Washington Post, Oakland Tribune, Toronto Star, and Boston Herald.

Ernie is an innovative ex-corporate worker who was blessed to have been fired from his job as a professional engineer over twenty-five years ago and to have leveraged his many years of struggles without a real job into a lifestyle of personal and financial freedom.

Ernie's core message — that we all can be more creative and really live life the way it was meant to be lived — is at the heart of all his work. Ernie has dedicated his life to helping individuals pursue their dream careers and at the same time create a better work/life balance in their lives. Thousands of individuals have contacted Ernie by phone, letters, and e-mails about how they have experienced inner renewal and personal growth as a result of reading one of his bestselling books.

Ernie has a B.Sc. in Engineering and a Masters in Business Administration from the University of Alberta. He has maintained a four- to five-hour workday for many years and doesn't like to work in any month that doesn't have an "r" in it. Being one of the first Canadian digital nomads, he hangs around with his laptop in his favorite coffee shops in Edmonton, Toronto, and Vancouver where he writes all his books.

KEITH GARRETT

All Flavor No Grease

Friday, June 30, 2017

11:00 am – 12:15 pm

Since his childhood, Keith Garrett has had an eye for entrepreneurship. Born and raised in Watts, CA Keith started his entrepreneurship journey early, creating his own candy business during his years at Gomper Middle School. After graduating as Valedictorian from the Maxine Waters Development Preparation Center, Keith decided to pursue his entrepreneurial skills through "street" methods. This changed when Keith came to the personal revelation that he had more to offer this city than what he was currently doing. He prayed to God for an answer and God spoke to Him, encouraging him to continue with something he's known his entire life, business ownership.

Once Keith decided to turn his life around, he opened up a local candy house. This candy house was a safe location in the city where both children and adults could revel in some of their favorite snacks and treats. While in the shop one afternoon, one of Keith's friends jokingly suggested he sell other items besides convenience store snacks. The idea sparked something in Keith and he decided to pursue getting his license to make food on-site. This is where AFNG was born.

Since it's opening AFNG has received tremendous success. AllFlavorNoGrease has seen more than 50M video views across social media through engaging videos of the food and inspirational messages. Keith and his famous quesadillas were recently featured on KTLA-TV (Los Angeles). His client list includes such celebrities as Matt Barnes (NBA All-Star), Shaunie O'Neal (Basketball Wives LA) and Bow Wow/Shad Moss. AFNG has also been a major player at such events as:

- OozeFest 50,000+ in attendance over 2 days
- Matt Barnes Charity event 3,500 in attendance
- The Block Urban Gastronomy Experience 5,000+ in attendance

AFNG continues to promote Food, God, and Positivity everyday not only through yummy clips on social media but by setting its eyes on the future. AFNG looks forward to giving weekly cooking lessons to the children in the Watts and surrounding communities, owning several food trucks —helping promote job growth in the city and starting an AFNG franchise from restaurants to merchandise. The future continues to get bigger and brighter for AFNG. Through national recognition of their food, partnering with tastemakers and influencers, non-profit organizations for charity events and by keeping the community engaged and entertained by his recognized slogan, "See yaon the ocho," AllFlavorNoGrease is a brand that is on the rise.

SPECIAL CONFERENCE FEATURES

CAREER RESOURCE STORE

Stop by the Resource Store and purchase your favorite NCDA Publications. Don't forget your $5 off coupon in your conference tote bag. The Resource Store will be open Wednesday and Thursday of the conference.

CONFERENCE SESSIONS

Presentations

96 presentations will be available throughout the conference. These 75 minute presentations will cover all the latest career development topics.

Roundtables

More than 90 roundtables will be available throughout the conference. These mini-sessions are a great way to learn about the latest career development practices! You can attend two 30-minute discussions during the workshop series.

NEW! Career Talks

Modeled on the popular Ted Talks, these quick presentations (15 minutes) provide the opportunity to share new ideas on a wide-range of career topics.

Graduate Student Poster Sessions

Graduate students just joining our field have a great deal to share with NCDA members. These poster sessions will feature the latest research, practice, programs, or other thoughts on the field of career development!

CONSTITUENCY GROUPS

At this year's conference, you will once again have the opportunity to meet with the NCDA Trustee for the constituency group that most closely represents your work setting or interest affiliation. These groupings are designed to help you in your networking, to facilitate greater connection with colleagues who may share similar interests and work settings, and to enhance communication between the membership and the NCDA Board. Constituency groups are easily identifiable by their different colored name badge holders. Be sure to make your travel arrangements so you can participate in these special meetings on Wednesday, June 28, 9:00 – 10:30 am.

CYBER SHOWCASE

Back by popular demand! The Cyber Showcase will host several computers featuring the NCDA Website, Career Convergence, Conference App, and 30-minute demo sessions. Access to the Internet will be available.

EXHIBIT HALL EXPERIENCE

Don't miss visiting with 40+ of the premier vendors of career-related products and services. The exhibit hall will be open Wednesday and Thursday of the Conference.

FIRST TIMER'S MEETING

Make sure you attend the First Timer's Meeting on Wednesday, June 28 from 8:00 – 9:00 am to gain tips on how to make the most of the conference, meet members of the NCDA Board, meet other conference first-timers, and maybe walk away with a door prize.

LUNCH IN THE EXHIBIT HALL

Enjoy a light lunch while experiencing all the Exhibit Hall has to offer! Connect with those who offer the products and services that continue to transform the career development field.

NCDA WELCOME PARTY

Join us for a family-oriented party Orlando Style, on Wednesday, June 28 at 6:00 – 7:15 pm in the Exhibit Hall. Family friendly entertainment, food and drinks will be provided. The entertainment will then continue into the night with desserts, dancing and a cash bar beginning at 7:30 – 9:00 pm. All conference attendees are encouraged to attend either or both of these events. Additional guests may purchase tickets to attend.

TRANSPORTATION TO DISNEY SPRINGS

NCDA will be providing bus transportation to and from Disney Springs (formerly Downtown Disney) beginning at 5:30 pm on Thursday, June 29. Transportation will run continually throughout the evening until 10:00 pm. Enjoy live entertainment, great restaurants, and shopping all done Disney style. Transportation is complimentary to all NCDA attendees and their families.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTES

Professional Development Institutes are intense 4-hour workshops that are designed to provide participants with in-depth information. Participants registered for a PDI will receive 4 contact hours for their participation. Refreshment breaks will be provided. Participants must register and pay additional fees for these sessions.

PRE/POST-CONFERENCE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTES (PDIS)

TUESDAY, JUNE 27, 2017 • 1:00 – 5:00 PM

PDI #1 Into the Weeds! A Train-the-Trainer Session on Federal Hiring for Career Counselors

You will have a plain-language, train-the-trainer experience that will enable you to advise job seekers on Federal employment. A Federal policy expert from the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) will provide up-to-date information on Federal hiring rules, job search, resume writing, and student and recent graduate programs.

Tom Formby, U.S. Office of Personnel Management

PDI #2 Using StrengthsFinder 2.0 to Increase Client's Well-being and Engagement

Strengths is a powerful tool to use with clients in their career development process. Learn more about the StrengthsFinder 2.0, engagement, and well-being, practice a strengths-based coaching session, and walk away with resources and tools you can immediately use. All participants will need to complete StrengthsFinder 2.0 before attending this session.

Cori Shaff, University of Colorado, Boulder

PDI #3 Building Career Construction Counseling Competency

Career construction counseling helps people across life's diverse spectrum use work to actively master what they passively suffer. Integrating theory and practice, this session engages participants in learning and practicing career construction counseling and its core method of the career construction interview to increase their knowledge and skills in its use. Designed for a general audience.

Kevin Glavin, University of Colorado - Denver; Mark Savickas, Northeast Ohio Medical University; Sue Savickas, John Carroll University; Brian Taber, Oakland University; Susan Barclay, University of Central Arkansas

PDI #4 Bringing Joy into Your Private Practice through Automation

When private practitioners spend more time with business administration than with our clients, we lose our sense of joy. With this hands-on technology session, you'll walk away with an automated, integrated, low-cost scheduling, emailing, CRM, and mailing list building system to grow your business while you do what you love.

Ronda Ansted, Be the Change Career Consulting

PDI #5 It's Elementary! Career Development as Lifestyle Apprenticeship in the Elementary School

Career development is about being successful in one's life journey. Students learn about themselves, their interests, what they are good at, where they are challenged, how to set goals and make decisions, and being adaptable. This session is about creating an intentional career development delivery system for the elementary school.

Pamela E. Brott, University of Tennessee, Knoxville

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 2017 • 1:30 – 5:30 PM

PDI #6 The Life Design Group: Career Development through Career Construction Counseling

Typically, career specialists conduct the career construction interview (CCI) with individual clients. In this PDI, attendees will participate in The Life Design Group to learn use of the CCI in group settings. Attendees will practice a ThemeMapping process developed and used by the presenter in her own work and research.

Susan R Barclay, University of Central Arkansas

PDI #7 Group Career Counseling: Principles and Practices

Participants will gain an understanding of a unique counseling methodology which effectively integrates group counseling with career development. Using an experiential approach, within a "fish bowl" format, principles and skills will be illustrated via an actual group career counseling (GCC) session. Relevant handouts including a detailed outline of a GCC program will be provided.

Richard Pyle, Private Practice; Seth Hayden, Wake Forest University

PDI #8 Espirit de Retirement: An Integrative Model for the Design of Career Interventions for 21st Century Retirement

Contemporary retirement services confront a new challenge: requests for assistance with nonfinancial or psychosocial factors affecting quality-of-life in retirement. An in-depth individual case study and a group counseling intervention illustrate how core competencies in adult human- and career-development, assessment techniques, and counseling strategies qualify career practitioners uniquely to fulfill this emerging marketplace opportunity.

Michael E. Hall, Solo Practitioner; Judith M. Ettinger, University of Wisconsin-Madison

PDI #9 Brain-Based Career Development (BBCD): The Neuroscience Coaching Approach that Helps Clients Take Action

For most individuals, the career development process is inherently overwhelming by the sheer amount of information and future based thinking that goes along with making life altering decisions. This PDI will showcase the Brain-Based Career Development (BBCD) model, which is based on cutting edge neuroscience research.

Imants Jaunarajs, Ohio University

PDI #10 Getting off the Ground: Developing a Viable Career Business

Individuals often dream about having their own business. Based off the largely attended roundtable in 2016, the presenters have expanded this program into a more intense workshop allowing participants the time to develop their own business plans around the tools shared. Join us to get your career business off the ground!

Mary Ila Ward, Horizon Point Consulting, Inc.; Constance Pritchard, The Pritchard Group
