

ERUTUF

Upside down backwards is the best depiction

Future, is there a true description?

Isn't the meaning the word unknown?

You don't always reap what you sow

ERUTUF

But what you sow turns it forward

Brings it closer to a true word

Look (work) real hard and you may see

The small beginnings of a tree

FUTURE

Then where you go turns it up

Though the edges may still be rough

Do what you love, love what you do

And the word future may just come true
